at the present date, and yet the preparation is only in the infancy of its usefulness. The great defect of all Cough Remedies hitherto introduced is that they are simply expalsary. Hence they are useless; for unless the causes of the acrid secretions which are saughed up are removed, and the reptured, inflamed or maturated surfaces headed and restored to their natural tone, a cure is impossible. Fritsch's Prussian Cough Syrup accomplishes these objects. The mucus and muco-pus which are the consequence of Lung Disease, are thrown off by it, while at the same time it soothes and invigorates the weakened tissues.

The scene of the Mountain Meadows massacre is now the very picture of desolation. Before the Mormons murdered 131 innocent men and women there in 1857, the Mesdows were known far and wide as a paradise in the desert, with an abundance of grass, crystal streams and ever flowing springs. To-day the grass is gone, the water courses are dried up, and nothing but a dreary waste marks the once beautiful spot. It is said that the earth is also sinking, and the bones which were collected after the massacre, though thrice buried, continue to reappear, while settlers in the vicinity shun the spot as haunted, and say that the winds from the Meadows bring piercing cries for help to their ears,
